

Permanent Seminar IPP (CSIC) FALL 2022

The seminar will take place at IPP, CSIC
All seminars are held at 12 in Sala Herbert Simon (3D) except where indicated.

September 21

Sara Diogo (University of Aveiro, Portugal)
Invisible researchers in the knowledge society:
the Uberisation of scientific work

September 28

Irene Pañeda (WZB, Berlin Social Science Center)
Income, meritocracy and redistributive preferences: evidence from cross national surveys and a large on line experiment

October 19

Nerea Gándara Guerra (European University Institute)
We are your pack! The effects of feminist social movements on egalitarian behaviours

October 26

Marga Torre (IC3JM, Carlos III University)
Does gender parity foster collaboration?
Trends in gender homophily in scientific publications, 1980-2019
From 11 to 13.

November 16

Gejfon Off (Department of Political Science, Gothenburg University)
Explaining opposition to advancing discriminated groups by zero-sum perceptions.
A multi-method approach

November 23

Carol Galais (Department of Political Science, UAB)
Populist Radical Right-Wing Parties and the Assault on Political Correctness:
The Impact of Vox in Spain

November 30

Esther Blanco (University of Innsbruck and The Ostrom Workshop)
Including Donors in the Provision of Public Goods
Room María Zambrano (0C)

Centro de Ciencias Humanas y Sociales del CSIC.
C/ Albasanz, 26-28. 28037-Madrid